Fun Places To Go!

Balboa Park Q

MTS Route 7. With 1,400 acres, Balboa Park is the country's largest urban park. Enjoy miles of garden walks past delightful period architecture, the San Diego Aerospace Museum, the Ruben H. Fleet Space Theater and Science Center, the Museum of Man, the acclaimed Old Globe Theatre, botanical gardens, fountains and more. The park dates back to 1914 when the original Spanish-style structures were built for the Pan-Pacific Exposition, celebrating the opening of the Panama Canal.

San Diego Museum of Art and Natural History

MTS Route 7. Both museums have received international recognition. Both feature fine collections, as well as fascinating changing exhibitions.

San Diego Zoo P

MTS Route 7. The San Diego Zoo is 100 acres worth of the world's most exotic animal collection. The zoo's more than 4,000 animals live in barless enclosures that resemble their natural habitats. A special Children's Zoo has a nursery for the zoo babies, and a petting area for visitors.

Cabrillo National Monument Z

MTS Route 84. Commemorates Juan Rodriquez Cabrillo's 1542 discovery of what is now California. Some of the best views of San Diego Harbor, the ocean and the mountains that the city has to offer. The old Point Loma Lighthouse has been restored to its 1850's appearance.

Chula Vista Nature Center AA

MTS Trolley Blue Line, walk to shuttle. Located on Sweetwater Marsh National Wildlife Refuge on San Diego Bay, the Chula Vista Nature Center is an internationally recognized zoo/aquarium exhibiting plants and animals native to San Diego Bay and marsh/wetland habitats. See endangered Green Sea Turtles, shorebirds, hawks, sharks, and stingrays, to name a few!

Gaslamp Quarter V

MTS Trolley Blue Line, Orange Line and Bus Routes 3, 11, 20. The Gaslamp Quarter is a 16-block, 38-acre national historic district in the heart of downtown. Stretching from Broadway to the waterfront, the Gaslamp Quarter has almost 100 Victorian buildings that now are home to some of the city's best dining and entertainment establishments. These buildings represent some of the best commercial structures constructed in San Diego between the Civil War and World War I.

Maritime Museum R

MTS Trolley Blue Line, and Bus Routes 2, 923, 992. Step aboard the famous Star of India (1863), the oldest iron-hulled sailing ship afloat, the ferryboat Berkeley (1898), and the steam yacht Medea (1904) to see yachting luxury at the turn of the century. On the Embarcadero at the waterfront.

Mission San Diego de Alcala K

MTS Trolley Green Line, and Bus Route 14. This is California's first mission, built in 1769 and authentically restored. Contains many relics of early mission days.

Old Town N

MTS Trolley Blue Line, Green Line, and Bus Routes 8/9, 10, 14, 28, 30, 35, 44, 105, 150 and the COASTER. Relive the Mexican/ California flavor of the mid-1800's. Colorful shops, flavorful restaurants and an interesting medley of sights await you. Presidio Park, with the Serra Museum and Library, overlooks Old Town.

Seaport Village W

MTS Trolley Orange Line. More than 70 one-of-a-kind shops, as well as restaurants. Fourteen acres front San Diego Bay for great views of San Diego's waterfront.

Sea World F

MTS Route 8/9. This 80-acre marine park on San Diego's Mission Bay is home to killer whale Shamu, dolphins, otters, seals, sharks, and several species of penguins and more.

Beach Fun

Of course, San Diego has the best beaches – more than 70 miles of oceanfront perfection. White. Sandy. And free to the public. Call (619) 221-8884 for a daily beach and surf report.

La Jolla/Stephen Birch Aquarium C A

MTS Route 30. One of the world's most famous resort areas features the beauty and serenity of La Jolla Cove. At low tide, the tidepools offer fascinating discoveries. Good swimming, skindiving and sunbathing.

Mission Beach E

MTS Routes 8/9. Mission Beach offers an impressive choice of ocean or bayside beaches, along with beautiful Mission Bay Park. Fish, swim, boat or sun to your heart's delight.

Ocean Beach M

MTS Routes 35, 923. Ocean Beach is a clearly marked strip just north of the jetty with the longest fishing pier on the Pacific Coast. The 2,220-foot-long concrete pier is floodlit for night fishing. Ocean Beach also offers good surfing, sunbathing and people watching.

Pacific Beach D

MTS Routes 8/9, 27, 30. Along with the beach, this popular community has restaurants dotting the boardwalk. You'll find natives and tourists alike enjoying the breathtaking ocean views.

Shopping Fun

Fashion Valley G

MTS Trolley Green Line and Bus Routes 6, 14, 20, 25, 41, 120, 928. San Diego's biggest shopping center, featuring department stores, specialty shops, boutique carts, popular restaurants and movie theatres.

Hazard Center H
